FIGHT, GREEN AND WHITE

We will sing a song of Veedersburg,
A good old Hoosier town,

We will shout for the green and white
'Til the roof comes falling down

'rah! 'rah! 'rah!

When they start you will know at sight
That the green and white will fight, fight, fight!

We are here to sing and cheer
For dear old Veedersburg.

Students fulfilling the requirements of an academic course are prepared to enter college. The academic course requires four years of English, three years of Social Science, two and one-half years of Mathematics, two years of Latin or any other foreign language, and two years of Science. A major is required in Social Science and English; a minor, in Science and a foreign language. Mathematics may be either a major or a minor. A major is the successful completion of three years work toward a subject; a minor, two years.

The remaining subjects are elective. Thus a person may enroll in two or more subjects in another department and still be classed as an academic student. Freshmen take English, Biology, Algebra, and either Farm Shop or Home Economics; Sophomores, English, Latin, History, and Geometry; Juniors, English, Latin, Business English, Algebra, and American History. In the Senior year, a student is required to take English, Civics, Physics, and an elective subject.

COMMERCE

Fourth row: Bonnie Day, Margery Howard, Virginia Smith, Judy Padgett, Martha LaBaw, Ruth Young, June Stembbaugh, Ruth Florey, Barbara Rusk.

Fifth row: Freida Totheroh, Nancy Crane, Zedith Krout, Bonnie Keeling, Ona Stonebraker, Jerry Harrold, Josephine Buesching, Betty Olds, Beverly Cartwright, Pat Harper.

The commercial department offers subjects which acquaint students with general business principles. The subjects required in this course are two years of Typing, two years of Shorthand and one year of Bookkeeping. In order to obtain the correct number of credits the students are required to take Biology, three years of English, Mathematics, Farm Shop or Home Economics, and a choice of Geometry or Latin. The following subjects are required each year: Freshmen, Biology, English, Algebra, Farm Shop or Home Economics; Sophomores, English, and one semester each of Business English and Commercial Arithmetic, and Latin or Geometry, Home Economics; Juniors, English, Stenography, Typing, American History, and Latin elective; Seniors, Civics, Typing, Shorthand, and Bookkeeping. Academic and vocational students may take one or more commercial subjects during the four years and still meet the requirements of their own department.

Second row: DeWayne Helms, Dallas Keeling, Glenn Hinote, James Irwin, Robert Trinkle, Don Collins, James Boone, Robert Byers.

Boys enrolled in the vocational agriculture department are presented subjects that are intended to acquaint them with the general basis of farming. Vocational students are required to complete at least twenty academic credits in addition to the eight vocational credits. One agricultural subject is taken each year during the four years, making the eight credits in all. The following subjects are taken during the four years: Freshmen, Agricultural Biology, Farm Shop, Algebra, English, Music, and Physical Training; Sophomores, Dairying and Animal Husbandry, English, Geometry, and World History or Latin; Juniors, Horticulture and Crops, English, American History, Business English, and advanced Algebra; Seniors, Farm Management, Civics, Physics, and an elective. All students are required to complete one or more productive enterprise projects and one or more supplementary farm projects. An example of this is a farm account, which consists of taking farm inventory and keeping a record of business procedure through the year.

VOCATIONAL HOME ECONOMICS

Girls enrolled in the vocational home economics department are presented subjects that are intended to acquaint them with the general basis of home making. This department includes home economics in general, home nursing, child development, related arts, foods, and clothing. Girls enrolled in this course gain knowledge and skill through actual practice in cooking, and sewing. Also, two home projects must be completed during the year, one of either sewing or cooking, each semester. In addition to the four years of home economics, students in this department must take the following subjects: Freshmen, English, Biology, Algebra, Music, and Physical Training; Sophomores, English, and two of the following, Geometry, History, or Latin; Juniors, English, American History, choice of Latin or one semester Commerical Arithmetic; and Algebra; Seniors, English, Civics, and an elective.

The High School Chorus participated in many varied programs throughout the entire year. There were 45 members enrolled this year.

Their Christmas Carol service was the highlight of the first term, while their Spring Festival held in Attica on April 11, was the climax of the second semester. The V.H.S. chorus was used as their special number, the Fred Waring arrangement of "Onward Christian Soldiers".

Ten students journeyed to Indianapolis in October to sing in the State Choral Festival.

The members of the chorus presented "The Gibson Girl on Broadway" at the V.H.S. Varieties of 1950 on April 27.

Two girls sextets entered the District Solo and Ensemble Contest in Greencastle. These sextets were composed of the following students: Dorothy Frazee, Barbara Vavas, Alberta Thomas, Virginia Smith, Judith Padgett, Nancy Crane, Anna Odle, Nita Odle, Josephine Buesching, Margery Howard, Nadine Shoaf, Mary Hughes. These groups received second division rating. A girls' trio composed of Nadine Shoaf, Mary Hughes, and Alberta Thomas received a first division rating. Robert Boone sang a solo and received a second division rating.

At the State Contest in Terre Haute, the girls' trio composed of Mary Hughes, Nadine Shoaf and Alberta Thomas won second division.

The following numbers were presented for the Amateur Contests held in Covington and Veedersburg in March: Girls' Sextette, Marilyn Byers, Barbara Sewell, Marietta Smith, Marlene Hall, Alice Irwin and Mary Olds. Girls' trio, Nadine Shoaf, Mary Hughes and Alberta Thomas. Soloists, Jerry Harrold and Wandalene Smith.

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER'S HERE AGAIN

Seniors at last!...It's unbelievable, but our year has finally come... Classes are arranged...Whoever said being a senior was simple?...Polio strikes, and we are out of school for two weeks...Work really begins... We buy new books, and settle down to our duties in V.H.S....The juniors begin their magazine sales...The baseball season entertains us for a brief period.

OCTOBER BRINGS HAPPY TIMES

The senior team wins the class tournament...We get basketball fever and elect yell leaders, Martha, Dorla, and Marilyn...The State Teachers' Convention gives us a vacation...Music students sing for State Choral Festival in Indianapolis...The freshies are off to a good start by having the first class party of the year, and what a party—Hallowe'en with games and refreshments!

NOVEMBER'S HIGHLIGHTS

We open the basketball season with our first game in Linden...Students observe Armistice Day with a program at 11 o'clock...Those jolly juniors do their class party up with decorations, place cards, eats, and games...Along come the seniors with a Hobo party...even a prize for the best tramp, and we really had fun...Thanksgiving vacation, and so we go visiting and have big dinners.

BUSY DECEMBER

Seniors are selling yearbooks...Christmas is near...Jingle, jingle bells on the juniors' shoes...My, is that our band? Nice formation for the Waynetown game...Chorus students are busy practicing for the Christmas program...Vacation for students and teachers...Merry Christmas...See you next year.

JANUARY OFFERS EXCITEMENT

The Pintus staff is chosen, and Pat Bryant and Janet Janeway become editors...A blissful day of ice and sleet, and no school...so sorry...Exemptions for final exams are few, but we can't all be smart...Seniors go to the photographer for pictures...Photographers come to V.H.S. for group pictures...Oh, the Wabash Valley Tournament...Attica wins it.

FEBRUARY ALREADY

Music students present a winter concert...Contestants go to Green-castle...Commerce students present us with a Breeze...The American Legion awards a sportsmanship trophy to David Lyons...Seniors are measured for caps and gowns, so that's another step nearer graduation...We go to the Sectional, but Richland Township wins it...On Monday we pose for snapshots in the cold, cold weather while Billy Kinneer photographs us.

ANOTHER MONTH MARCHES IN

It's still winter...The weary Pintus staff struggles on...Report cards appear...Seniors, and we still don't know how to explain low grades on the home front (Mother and Dad)...Senior play cast is chosen...More snapshots are taken for the Pintus...Freshies are in their glory as we wear the green.

APRIL AND SPRING DAYS

District choral festival in Attica...We practice for V.H.S. Varieties...The music department presents Varieties April 27.

MAY AND GRADUATION

Junior-Senior reception reception; many thanks to the juniors for a very pleasant evening...Baccalaureate, May 14...Senior play, May 17...Commencement, May 19.

SENIOR PROPHECY

One spring day, in 1970, while I was busy scrubbing pans, I began wondering about my graduating class of 1950. Since I am a housewife in California, I am not in touch with many of them, so I went to a fortune teller, and she was able to tell me about everybody. Virginia Rainey and Allan Harvey are running "The Coffee Cup" at Crawfordsville. Mable Miles manages a New York theater in which Martha Hoagland stars. Her latest show is "The Dancer on Broadway." She obtains her costumes from Nita Odle, a designer in Chicago and Janet Janeway, also in New York, styles her hair. Bob Ewbank is a successful dentist in Veedersburg. Bob Baldwin is now traveling with his Starlight Band. John Marshall is a professor at the University of Illinois. Pat Bryant has just completed one of the most marvelous discoveries ever made in the field of medicine—a shot that prevents you from ever having a disease. Donald Collins has worked out a reducing plan in which you have to eat in order to become slim. Algena Fields, Dorothy Frazee, and Freida Totheroh are busy housewives. Norman Hughes has a large farm, Wealthy Acres, on the outskirts of Veedersburg. David Lyons and Jack Linker are coaches at two nearby towns. Nina Shutz and Barbara Rusk are in the field of nursing in their home state. Ona Stonbraker helps her husband run the Mornout Station in Covington. Bill Willett is a professional boxer; his trade name is "Puncher". Mary Ellen Odle and Eston Meihls are having careers in aviation. Eston is a pilot and Mary Ellen, a stewardess. Barbara Vavas is posing for the Life magazine cover. Georgie Ludlow is the head buyer for the "Teen-Age Creations" for L. S. Ayres in Indianapolis. Donald Clift has a chain of grocery stores with the central offices located in Cincinnati. Anna Odle just finished a novel, "David in the Lyons Den." Betty Byers is a secretary in the Trust-Us Insurance Company in Lafayette. Joey Boord is head of the advertising for the Sudsy Wudsly Soap Company of St. Louis. Jean Lowe has just won an award for being the best lady auctioneer in the country. Dean Hesler is now a professional swimmer who has recently participated in Aquatic races on several Southern beaches. Allen Bass and Paul Ebert are in Florida running a motel, Twin Palms. David Kester is a road contractor in Chicago. Dean Mitton is head of the Reliable Construction Company. Carl Helms is a commercial artist in Denver. While returning home, I felt happy to think my classmates had become such worthwhile citizens.

SENIOR WILL

We, the Senior class, do hereby will and bequeath the following:

Bob Baldwin—My ability to play the sax to Charley Kester.

Allen Bass—My ability to make friends and to enjoy school to my brother, Chester.

Joe Boord—My parking place to anyone who can afford an automobile.

Pat Bryant—My tuba solo (Solo Pomposo) to Mr. Cade.

Betty Byers—My willingness to get papers in on time to my brother, Bob.

Donald Clift—My proud privilege of being a senior to my brother, Jack.

Don Collins—My bookkeeping books, which never did and never will balance, to someone who wants a headache.

Paul Ebert—My honors in typing class to any poor soul who can't do any better.

Bob Ewbank—My short walk to school to Gordon Meihls.

Algrena Fields—My fondness for physics to Dick Kelley.

Dorothy Frazee—My liking for the Commercial Course to Martha LaBaw.

Allan Harvey—My ability to argue with Mr. Cronk in civics and sociology to some timid soul.

Carl Dean Helms—My presidency of the senior class to a junior who is fortunate enough to get it.

Dean Hesler—My fondness of sleeping in study hall and classes to any lucky junior who can get away with it.

Martha Hoagland—My ability as yell leader to anyone with a big mouth and good lungs.

Margery Howard—My habit of getting C's in deportment to anyone who wants to have fun.

Norman Hughes—My troubles in physics class to Arnold Hancock.

Janet Janeway—My favorite course, home economics, to Ida Mae Dismore and Mary Jo Harper.

David Kester—My good grades to my brother, Charles.

Jack Linker—My ability to sleep until the first bell and still not be late to Jim Meeker.

Jean Lowe—My noisy footsteps around the assembly to Nancy Crane.

Georgia Ludlow—My liking for Hillsboro boys to Mary Jo Harper.

David Lyons—My ability to make free throws to Blayne Starkey.

John Marshall—My habit of losing in Canasta to DeWayne Helms.

Eston Meihls—My ability to have friends to my brother, Charles.

Mable Miles—My ability to work and go to school at the same time to Judy Padgett.

Dean Mitton—My typewriter in typing class to anyone who is a good mechanic.

Anna Odle—My fondness for walking to school in the afternoons to Marlene Hall.

Mary Ellen Odle—My seat in front of Gordon Meihls to any sociable person.

Nita Odle—My position of drummer to Jasper Fogelman.

Virginia Rainey—My shyness to Jenny Harvey.

Barbara Rusk—My studious ways to my brother, Dean.

Nina Schutz—My good times in V.H.S. to June Stembbaugh.

Ona Stonebraker—My ability to get A in deportment to anyone who likes to talk.

Freida Totheroh—My seat in the assembly to anyone who likes to be disturbed.

Barbara Vavas—My liking for shorthand and typing to an ambitious junior.

Bill Willett—My physics grades to anyone stupid enough to get them.

V.H.S. ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Veedersburg High School class of 1949 was welcomed into the Alumni Association at the annual banquet and dance in the gym in May.

Over 250 attended, including members from the first graduating class to the present class of 1949.

During the banquet, entertainment was provided by Mr. Don Dunn and Mr. Tom Bennett who sang a group of songs by Stephen Foster. Also a short skit was presented by four alumni, Doris Grady, Jeanne DeAth, John Cronk, and Roland Cushman. Mrs. John Cronk played the piano during the banquet interludes.

The Alumni event this year was a successful party and the gym was beautifully decorated. Credit for the occasion should go to the officers and committees who spent many hours in helping to put this event over.

Officers elected for 1950 are as follows:

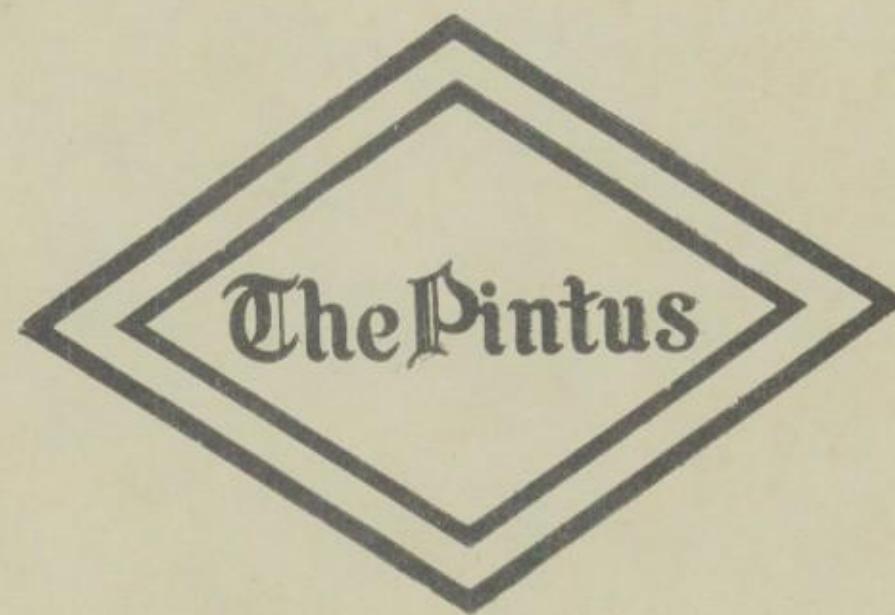

President	Roland Cushman
Vice-President	LaBert Boggs
Secretary	Eloise Pendry
Treasurer	Austin Barker

Front row, left to right: Jim Furr, DeWayne Helms, Gary Lightle, Dallas Keeling, Charles Kester.

Second row: Bill Willett, Gordon Meihls, Blayne Starkey, Don Clift, David Lyons, Jack Linker.

Veedersburg's baseball schedule was reduced to nearly nothing because of that dread disease polio. We were not able to get our practice in shape and the new ball team started. However, we have some nice material coming along, and we peer into the future with hope and promise that Veedersburg will again be blessed with a real baseball team. Gerald Keeling and Dean Helms will do the pitching chores for us this spring; Dean Rusk and Bill Willett will do the receiving. We have David Lyons, DeWayne Helms, Blayne Starkey, Richard Kelley, Don Clift, Gordon Meihls, Bob Ewbank, Gary Lightle, Jack Linker, and many more who are going to fight it out for a place on the team.

FIRST TEAM

Second row: Jerry Harper, Blayne Starkey, Robert Bennett, Jim Meeker, Don Clift.

Approximately forty-eight boys tried out for basketball, and nineteen were selected. Of these there were nine freshmen, four sophomores, four juniors, and two seniors. One man, Captain David Lyons, had previous experience, so the season began with boys who had, and still have, lots to learn. The most impressive thing about the season's work was the way the team trained and their display of team-work. Physical conditioning played a major role in the training program with the rest being mostly fundamentals.

The following boys were selected and maintained on the eligibility list: Jack Linker, David Lyons, Jack Furr, DeWayne Helms, Jim Meeker, Gordon Meihls, Bob Bennett, Jerry Harper, Richard Kelley, Barney McKinney, Jim Boone, Jack Clift, Jim Furr, Benny Holland, Ernest Hughes, Gerald Keeling, Gary Lightle, Dean Rusk, Blayne Starkey.

At the last home game of the season the Veedersburg American Legion presented a trophy to the outstanding senior sportsman, David Lyons. He was chosen on these factors: experience, scholarship, mental attitude, popularity, and sportsmanship. This is the first year for the ward, and it will be presented annually in the basketball season.

At school Coach Worick presented sweaters to the four following seniors: David Lyons, Jack Linker, and Allan Harvey. David Lyons, the captain, received the star. Dean Helms received a sweater for being student manager of the basketball team, and a letter for playing baseball four years. The sweaters were white with the letter trimmed in green.

SECOND BASKETBALL TEAM

Second row: Mr. Worick, Richard Kelley, Blayne Starkey, Robert Bennett, Gerald Keeling, Benny Holland, Gordon Meihls.

The second team also had a disastrous season, as Coach Worick was forced to use some freshmen and sophomore material to help the Varsity. Next year's second team will probably be in need of height, but we are sure they will give a good season, win or lose.
